The Gallery is pleased to present for the first time in America this Exhibition of Tapestries by Matisse, Picasso, Braque, Leger, Miro and Rouault. They have been executed after the original paintings at Beauvais and Aubusson under the expert supervision of Madame Marie Cuttoli whose sympathetic understanding of this work has been an inspiration to both artist and artisan, and from whose Collection these examples come. Each tapestry is unique and each has been passed and signed by the artist. Catalogue numbers 4, 8 and 9 are exceptions; these are one of an edition of two.
